

Paca Gardens Tour and Lunch Meeting

Landscape Consultants Council

William Paca Gardens, located in Historic Annapolis is a restored two acre 18th century colonial garden. Our tour will include the formal Parterres and physic and kitchen gardens. Afterward, we will have the opportunity to shop for native and heirloom plants. (Best selection is during their annual fundraiser on May 11 and 12)

Our spring lunch meeting for the Landscape Design Council will be at Galway Bay Restaurant, a short stroll away.
