

Inviting you to an adventure in learning with generous servings of fun!

Temple B'nai Israel, Tristan Drive, Easton - 9:30 am - 3:30 pm

- ▶▶ Hear from experts covering the science of growing and savoring flowers, herbs and grapes.
- ▶▶ Enjoy a coffee service welcome, plated luncheon and wine tasting.
- ▶▶ Draw inspiration from fabulous floral displays, a cooking demo and fresh ideas for entertaining.
- ▶▶ Find opportunities at exclusive vendor boutiques and a silent auction.

EXPERTS ON THE MENU:

Ginny Rosenkranz (University of Maryland Cooperative Extension educator):

"Seasonal Snipping: Planning, Planting and Harvesting Flowers for Cutting Gardens to Thrive on the Eastern Shore."

Jacque & Patrick O'Neil (UC-Davis-trained viticulturists, proprietors of Napa, California's Jericho Ridge Vineyard) and The Spies Family (proprietors of Cordova, Maryland's Triple Creek Winery):

"Talking Terroir: The Challenges of Winemaking along the Chesapeake."

Jordan Lloyd (Le Cordon Bleu-trained owner/chef at Easton's Hambleton House Events & Catering, formerly of La Goulue, Per Se and Citronelle):

"Culinary Gardens: The Life of a Locavore."

Details and Tickets: talbotcountycg.org

The Symposium is Talbot County Garden Club's major fundraiser for 2023.

Proceeds benefit the club's community "green works."

Co-chairs: Madeleine Cohen, Alden Firth & Sara Robins

(tcgc2023Symposium@gmail.com)